The Path to Paradise: Getting Here

Driving

Main access to the area is via I-75, known as Alligator Alley in the section between Naples and Ft. Lauderdale. From I-75, six exits offer entry into the area.

- Exit 80 to SR 29 leads to Everglades City, Immokalee and Ave Maria.
- Exit 101 to SR 84 leads visitors to downtown Naples and it is also the exit for Marco Island—just follow Collier Boulevard (SR 951) westward to the island.
- Exit 105 leads to both downtown Naples and Golden Gate, providing easy access to downtown Naples, Naples Zoo, the Conservancy of Southwest Florida, Coastland Mall and more.

- Exit 107, Pine Ridge Road, leads you directly to U.S. 41. This is the best exit to reach Clam Pass Beach Park and Waterside Shops.
- Exit 111, Immokalee Road, leads to North Naples to the west and the National Audubon Society's renowned Corkscrew Swamp Sanctuary just 17 miles east, as well as the towns of Ave Maria and Immokalee.
- Exit 116, Bonita Beach Road, offers access to Barefoot Beach Park and the growing number of shops and restaurants in North Naples.
